

23-27 SEPTEMBER 2018

LAS VEGAS CONVENTION CENTER | LAS VEGAS, NV

Rethinking the ASIS CSO Standard

Charles Baley
Chief Security Officer,
Farmers Group, Inc.

Jerry Brennan
Chief Executive,
Security Mgmt Resources Group

Susan Carioti
VP, Standards & Certification
ASIS International

CSO Standard

Developed in 2008 and revised in 2013

Top management position responsible in protecting an organization from security threats

Comprehensive integrated risk strategies

Contains model position description and skill set criteria

Revision work planned 2019/2020

Essential Competencies for Top Security Executives

Strategic

- Creating the New and Different
- Making Complex Decisions
- Understanding the Business

Operational Skills

- Developing Direct Reports
- Getting Work Done Through Others
- Managerial Courage

Essential Competencies for Top Security Executives

Organizational Positioning Skills

- Organizational and Political Savvy
- Communicating Effectively
- Managing Up

Personal and Interpersonal Competencies

- Ethics and Values
- Composure and Receptiveness
- Inspiring Others

Organization Security Related Risks

Protecting Diverse Assets in an Evolving, Interdependent Global Environment

Compliance - Operational - Strategic - Financial - Reputation

Response and Mitigation Activities

- Governance Guidelines
- Policy Development and Implementation
- Operational Procedures
- Education and Training
- Awareness Programs
- Predictive Intelligence and Assessments
- Counter-Intelligence
- Investigations and Inquiries
- Audits and Inspections
- Process Analysis and Evaluations
- Continuity and Response Plans
- Business Impact Analysis
- Resiliency Programs Integration
- External Relationships
- Cross-Functional Partnering

CSO Standard Next Edition Emphasis

Changing Nature of Global Business

Importance of Universal and Comprehensive
Security Culture

Internal and
External Challenges

CSO Key Driver of Organizational Strategy

Executive
Leadership
Experience

Means to Demonstrate Business
Improvement

Climb the Career
Ladder

Succession
Planning

Panel Discussion

FEEDBACK

standards@asisonline.org